Gen. V.★ John Andrews Born 1764-1769 VA; Died ca 1843 Tuscaloosa, AL. Married Elizabeth Howell Born ca 1775 VA; Died 1853 AL. I base the maiden name of John's wife on the following article taken fron "The Aberdeen Examiner", Page 3, Section 1 A Aberdeen, MS, 19 May 1964. By George W. Howell.

" Howell Andrews and his family left Monroe Co., MS at some time between 1823 and 1830. He joined his brother, John Andrews, as a resident of Tuscaloosa Co., AL. Beth Howell Andrews and John Andrews spent the balance of their lives engaged in plantation farming in Tuscaloosa Co. Howell Andrews died between 1830- 1840. John Andrews was near eighty years of age when he died between 1840-1850." Note by M.J. -I believe there was a Howell Andrews marriage prior to John's. I base this on his brother being named Howell Andrews. There will be more on John Andrews and his descendants latter.

Gen. V. Howell Andrews Born ca 1772 VA; Died between 1830- 1840 AL. From George Howell's article of May 19, 1964 we see that John Andrews , Howell Andrews with their families, accompanied by Abraham Howell and his young wife and infant son moved westward from Laurens Co., South Carolina in the year 1813. They probably went to the state of Tennessee. In the year 1817 Howell Andrews and Abraham Howell with families moved to Monroe Co., Mississippi. Before 1820. John Andrews had moved his family to Tuscaloosa Co., AL. Between 1823 and 1830 Howell Andrews and his family left Monroe Co. and joined his brothers John and Ezekiel in Tuscaloosa Co., AL.

★ JOHN ANDERS

In 1844 John Anders or Andrews is dead. We find the estate is settled under the name Anders. His oldest son , James, came to Texas in 1839 or 40 settling in Montgomery County. Here the name is both ways in early records.

In Orphan's Court Records of Tuscaloosa Co., AL is the Appraisment of John Andrews estate. Dated 30 Sept. 1844 and signed by G. Stephens, John A. Brown and E.T.B. Liverman. 10 chairs, 1 trunk, 1 bed stead, 1 bed stead and furniture, 1 bed stead and cord, 1 spinning wheel, 2 tables, 1 slab, 1 desk, 2 looking glasses, 1 shot gun, 10 tumblers, 2 waiters, 1 decanter, 2 jars crockery, 1 kitchen furniture, 2 sad irons, 1 loot of copper ware and bread tray, 1 pr fire dogs, 2 axes, 1 handsaw and 2 plains, 1 pr saddle bags, 1 pr stellyards, 1 large pot and hooks, 1 grindstone, 2 pr geus, 4 ploughs, 2 chiveses, 2 singletrees, 2 matlocks, 1 auger, 1 log chain, 1 carryalls harness, 1 small wagon, 150 bushels corn, 1500 lbs fodder, 1 black horse, 1 mare, 1 colt, 1 pr large oxen, 1 small yoke of oxen, 1 cow, 1 negro man Ralph, 1 man Ben, 1 man Jessie, 1 note on Andrew Norris with interest from 25 Dec. 1842 for $108.00. Sale of the property was 31 Oct. 1844 by David Johnston Admin. Buyers were -- T.B.S. McGee, Wm. Cole, J. P. Darden, Ezekiel Andrews, Elizabeth Andrews and M.D. Williams. Ezekiel and John Andrews bought a negro 10 Jan. 1845. There was some land that was sold latter. The heis were paid money from the estate several times but the final settlement was not made untill 10 April 1854. This was because the daughter Louisa had died leaving three minor daughters - Elizabeth and Jane Holbroke, and Arabella McGehee. The final settlement is found in Orphans Court Records Book 5 - page 439.

John's wife is dead in 1853 and her estate is sold 18 June 1853. James Anders was in Texas by the time these estates were settled so his brother Ezekiel collected the money for him.

The Children of John Andrews and Elizabeth Howell Andrews. Some researchers think Elizabeth may have been a second wife and and not the mother of James, Stacy, John W. and Frances. I think Elizabeth is their mother. James and Frances each named their first daughter Elizabeth.

★ James Anders

James Anders, son of John Anders and Elizabeth Howell Anders, was born about 1794 in South Carolina, probably Laurens Co. He died 9 Mar. 1855 in Montgomery Co., TX. He married Martha Formby 5 Feb. 1822 in Wilkes Co., GA. We have no proof that this is our James. Martha Anders was born 9 July 1802 S.C. She died 16 Nov. 1883 and is burried in Mt Pleasant Cem. in Montgomery Co., TX. We have never found James grave.

My mother , Frances Anders Holmes once told me two of her ancestors committed sucide, on her father's side. I am sure one was James Anders. In Barker Library of Austin, TX I found an Index to early newspapers. I found the death of James Andrews carried in the paper "Texas State Times," issue March 21, 1855. Barker did not have that issue so I went to the State Archives. They had it. Article : On March 9, 1855 James Andrews of Walker Co. came home from one of his drinking sprees, tied a string to his big toe, then tied the other end of string to the trigger of his shot-gun. When he moved his big toe ,the gun went off shooting his head off. The Anders lived up near the County line in Montgomery Co. The next county is Walker County. I found where Martha Anders paid taxes on their property in the fall of 1855. If James had been living he would have paid the taxes. Shortly after this Martha began selling property.

Several years back I visited Mary Ella Schoverling in Houston. Mary Ella's grandmother was Mary Anders Weatherford, daughter of James and Martha. Mary Ella and I drove up to the Mount Pleasant Cemetery, about seven miles above the old town of Montgomery in Montgomery Co., TX. Here we visited the graves of Martha Anders and several of her children. The day we were there Mary Ella had a colored man planting shrubs and blue bonnets. She had organized a cemetery association for the upkeep of the grounds. Latter she had a small chapel built. She has moved her dead husband's body to this cemetery. Her husband was a prominent dentist in Houston, TX. They had one son when the husband became ill with a kidney disease and passed away. The son grew up to be an orthodontic dentist. Now in 1990 the son is dead leavig two daughters.

My aunt Mattie Anders Keithly went to college in Huntsville, TX. She lived with her Aunt Sue Anders, sister of Jacob Bolivar Anders. Aunt Sue ran a boarding house for college students. I once met Aunt Sue when she came to Palacios to visit her sister-in-law, Lou Anders, the widow of Jacob Bolivar. Aunt Mattie told me of meeting her great aunt, Mary Anders Weatherford. She was a fine lady with a fine family.

✠ John Demostinie Anders

John Demostinie Anders was born in 1823 in Tuscaloosa Co., AL and came to Texas with his parents, James and Martha Anders, about 1839. They settled near the town of Montgomery in Montgomery Co. John married Nancy Gilleland (daughter of Daniel Gilleland) 21 Jan. 1845. About 1846 Daniel moved to Milam Co., TX and John moved his family also. Nancy Gilleland was born 19 Jan. 1829 in Pope Co., Arkansas. The Gilleland family had moved from Ark. to Texas in 1821. Being dissatisfied with the Mexican Government they moved back to AR 1825.

Nancy died on the 29 day of January, 1870 leaving John to raise a house full of children, the baby, Virgil just a month old. A friend who had a young baby took Virgil into her home and nursed him for several months. When the 1870 census was taken the baby was back home with John's family. The mortality census for 1870 lists Nancy Anders as having died from liver disease. John suffered from old civil war wounds and had a hard time making a living for his family. In 1875 he had to sell his one half of the 200 acres he and Nancy had bought. About 1884 the youngest daughter, Susan Catherine married her cousin William Anders. John gave up trying to maintain a home . His children all sold their interest in the home to their older sister Mary (Anders) Carlile and her husband William. John spent the remainder of his life living with first one or another of his children. My grandmother Lou Anders, wife of Jacob Bolivar, told me this story. She said John was always in pain from his arthritis. He started using morphine to kill the pain. His son Jacob Bolivar forbid him to use it , and refused to give him money to buy it. Grandmother felt sorry for him so she would give him eggs to sell so he could buy the drug. No one seems to know just when John Anders died or where he is buried. A letter from Lowell Longmire, a grandson of Mary Anders Carlile, tells this story. John went to Montgomery County to visit relatives. He fell ill and died . He could be buried in the Mt. Pleasant Cem. If so there is no marker. He probably died about 1890.

Latter called Texas Mounted Volunteers on 16 Sept. 1861. Company D. took part in battles at Valverde and Glorieta,New Mexico. Daniel Gilleland Jr. and James David Gilleland, brother-in-laws to John Anders, were in this unit. Daniel was killed in Feb. 1862 and John was seriously wounded, from which he suffered the remainder of his life. In April of 1862 was mustered out of the army. John Anders was a member of the Walnut Grove Masonic Lodge No. 145 of Milam Co., TX.

Jacob Bolivar Anders

Jacob Bolivar Anders was born 17 Aug. 1859 near San Gabriel River in Milam Co., TX. His parents were John Demostinie Anders and Nancy Gilleland. He died 21 Sept. 1924 in the home of Charlie Peterson in Olivia, TX. He was buried in the Olivia Cemetery. On 16 Feb. 1885 Jacob B. Anders married Sarah Lutiche Lofton Cooly (widow). Sarah had married Burrel Cooly 29 Dec. 1881. Burrel died in less than a year leaving Sarah with a baby daughter. When Burrel Cooly died with out a will he owned two tracts of land in Milam Co. This land could not be sold until his child, Dovie, was of legal age. The J. B. Anders family may have lived on this land. Something kept them in Milam Co. My sisters and I have laughingly spoke of grandfather Anders as our gypsy grandfather, he moved so often. In Milam Co. Deed Book 66 pages 66 and 93 is record of Sarah Lutiche Anders and her husband, J. B. Anders, selling their interest in the land in Milam Co.that had belonged to Burrel Cooly. The date is 11 Oct. 1904. The deed was drawn up by John Lind in Calhoun Co., evidently just before one of the moves to West Texas.

The Anders first moved to Calhoun Co in the fall of 1899. They rented land to farm from Mr. Charlie Peterson. He let them live in a small house near his new home on Caranchua Bay. The great gulf storm of 1900 swept the entire Texas Coast. It took all the cotton crops. The Andersfamily had never experienced any thing so terrifying. They expected their house to be blown away with them in it. They decided the tornadoes of West Texas were not as bad as the hurricanes of the Coast.

In October of 1900 the Anders set out for West Texas. On the morning of October 27 they were traveling through the rolling hills of Mason Co. The boys were walking behind the wagons playing with a young colt. Eight year old Harry tried to ride the colt. One of his brothers punched the colt and it pitched Harry off. During the day, Harry began running fever. Toward night grandfather stopped at the Martin Ranch, and asked if he might camp on the ranch for the night as he had a sick child. Mrs.Martin told him to use a small house on the ranch. That night little Harry died. Excuse me, I all ways have to stop and cry when I tell this story. Grandmother was so overcome with grief she just could not go leaving little Harry behind. Grandfather got bussy and found a farm he could rent. They made one crop there in Mason County. On 15 June 1901 a three pound baby daughter was born to the Anders family. The baby was named Anna in honor of Mrs. Martin. Fifty years latter Aunt Mattie Kiethly visited Little Harry's grave on the Martin Ranch. Many years latter the brother who punched the colt, lay dying. He confessed to his sister that a guilty feeling had haunted him all his life.

In the Fall of 1901 the Anders Family left Mason Co. and moved back to Olivia. This time Mr. Peterson had a better house, and farm to rent them. They lived on this place longer than most. In Sept of 1905 Sarah Lou Anders gave birth to her tenth and last child. This made eight children still living at home. Dove was already married.

Grandfather Anders was called Doc. I thought this was because he was good at doctoring animals. In Olivia once a month the Swedish people would bring their animals to the community dipping-vat if they needed to be casterated or doctored. Doc Anders would be there to do the work. I told this to Uncle Buddie. He said no, the reason he was called Doc was in Milam Co. he was so good at doctoring people. He knew just how much calomel to put on the blade of a knife for a dose. In that day calomel came in loose powder in a bottle.

About October of 1905 Grandfather's itchey feet took over again. He decided Mark's asthma was acting up. That was always a good excuse to move. They sold the furniture they could sell, and gave away that they couldn't sell. Loaded two wagons and set out for West Texas. This time they stopped in Runnels Co. While living here tragedy struck again. In 1906 in the community of Pumphrey five men set out prospecting for some land to buy. They were traveling in a covered wagon. A thunder-storm came up and lightening struck the party. Four of the five men were killed along with all the horses. The lone survivor was J. B. Anders. Twenty children were made orphans. Those killed were Jerry Ritch, S. J. Peterson, Charlie Stamps and A. W. Ashley. The Anders family received word that J. B. was dead. They were all crying and trying to plan the funeral when word came that J. B. was alive. He suffered migraine headaches the remainder of his life, caused by the lightening.

I do not know the year Aunt Mattie started teaching school. In 1908 she was teaching in Pumphrey and living in her parents home. Grandfather was a good farmer and with all the children to help he always made a good crop. One year he made so much money from his cotton crop, he offered to loan a friend the money to purchase a farm. Yet he never would give in to buying the farm his wife wife wanted so much. After making several good cotton crops in West Texas, our gypsy grandfather couldn't stand prosperity. He up-rooted the family again by moving them back to Olivia in the fall of 1910. His old friend, Mr. Charlie Peterson, rented them another farm. While living in Calhoun County this time the following children married and set up their own homes. The children who married were William Bolivar, Virgil Columbus (Bird), Marcus Marion (Mark), and Clara Frances. Frances (Frankie) my mother married Burrel Prather Holmes 27 Sept. 1915. The son who had caused the moves because his asthma was acting up was now married so that excuse could not be used again. However, grandfather just had to make one more move. This was about 1917. They were back in Olivia on 13 August 1819 when daughter Annie married Elgin Shows.

About 1922 or 1923 the Anders family moved to Palacios in Matagorda County, Texas where some of his children were living. On the afternoon of 21 September, 1924 Mr. Anders drove over to Olivia to visit his old friend, Charlie Peterson. That evening after supper J. B. became very ill. In a few hours he was dead. He was buried in the Olivia Cemetery.

Was it the call of the ancestors that accounts for the many moves of the Anders family? The Gillelands and Boatwrights moved a great deal. Another puzzle has been the source of the name Bolivar? I do not find it in the Gilleland family. In Van Zandt County, TX in 1880 there is Bolivar Andrews age 30 born in Alabama, wife Nancy, son Joseph W. age 5, son Robert L. age 3, son Bolivar age 2. All the children born in Texas. Living near is Joseph Andrews age 71 born in South Carolina. I am sure Joseph is the father of Bolivar. How are they related to the Anders of Montgomery and Milam Counties.

It is in Tuscaloosa Co., Ala. in 1844 we find the estate of John Anders being settled in Orphans Court. His daughter Louise had first married ___ McGehee, and married second Jacob Holbrook. Louise was dead leaving orphans, Arabella McGehee, Jane and Elizabeth Holbrook. The estate was settled in 1852. The next year John's wife Elizabeth died (1853).

There are many papers on this estate settlement. They always refer to son James Anders of Texas.

GILLILAND-GILLELAND

The first Gillilands in America lived in Penn. Before 1800 in Tenn. we find a Robert Gilliland whose wife was Mary Young. There is also a James Gilliland in Tenn. early. I am sure one of these is the father of our William.

William Gilliland made a will in April of 1800 in Davidson Co., Tennessee. In July the will is in probate. He instructs wife Nancy to sell a slave , Pompay, also some live stock and to buy land for their sons Robert, Daniel, and James. He gives a slave to daughter, Sarah.

This William Gilliland may be the one that married Nancy Johnson 26 Sept., 1792 in Prince Edward Co., Va. Her father was Phillip Johnson .

Thomas Williams married widow Nancy Gilliland 15 Sept., 1802 in Davidson Co., Tenn. In 1807 the land is bought for William Gilliland's sons, Robert, Daniel, and James. It is 825 acres in Robertson Co., Tenn. Soon after this Thomas moves his family to Arkansas Territory.

Four children are born to Nancy and Thomas Williams. They are Benjamin (who died in his teens), Thomas Johnson, Mary, and Nancy.

In 1819 we find the Williams and Gilliland families living at Pecan Point on the Red River. Sarah Gilleland had married Robert Kuykendall and they were also living there. The U.S. Government had surveyed this land and opened it for settlement. These families and many others had built homes and cleared land , thinking they would receive title s. The United States decided they want to move the Indians on to this land. They said they made a mistake in the surveying. They orded our people to leave. When they did not leave their homes were burned and their crops destroyed. Many of these families come in to Texas and join Stephen F. Austin. Daniel Gilleland and Robert Kuykendall settled on land on the Colorado River near where the town of Columbus is today. The Thomas Boatwright family where Washington Co., is today. Thomas and Amey Boatwright's daughter , Percilla , married Daniel Gilliland in Arkansas Territory 3 Feb. 1819.

Thomas and Nancy Williams received a league of land in Matagorda Co., Texas. It was on Caney Creek near Cedar Lake. Here Thomas died in 1825. At this time the Indians were causing trouble for the settlers in Matagorda Co. Several people were killed. Nancy and her children lived in Matagorda Co. several years , she then traded the land to Robert Selkirk for land in Washington County. Nancy's daughter Sarah Kuykendall continued to live in Matagorda and Wharton Counties. Robert Kuykendall died in 1831. Sarah then married Thomas Kinsey. Kinsey died and Sarah married Thomas J. Tone 31 Dec. 1837. Sarah died in 1857. She is buried in Hawley Cemetery in Matagorda Co.

Sarah Gilliland Kuykendall had a grandson, Wylie Kuykendall, who married Susan Pierce, a sister of the great cattleman, Shanghi Pierce.

We are unable to trace Robert Gilliland, the son of William and Nancy. In 1821 Daniel and James sell their land in Robertson County, Tenn. We find no mention of Robert so think he is dead.

James Gilliland was granted a league of land in Bastrop Co. This was latter in Travis Co. James was killed by Indians in 1837.

About 1825 many of Austin's Colonist became dissatisfied with the Mexican Government. They went back to Arkansas for a few years. For a long time I did not know why my Nancy Gilliland was born in Arkansas when her parents had came to Texas in 1821. Betty McCroskey, whose husband descended from Sarah Gilliland and Robert Kuykendall, told me about these people going back to Arkansas. She told me to check Arkansas Territorial Papers. I did this and found Daniel and James Gilliland's names on a petition to the United States Government in 1825. They were asking for compensation for their lands, and homes destroyed and taken by United States Troops.
In July 1830 Daniel Gilliland returns to Texas and asks for more land. He says he has been living in Arkansas. He was given a league of land in Austin Co. I latter found a deed in Pope Co., Arkansas dated March 1830. Daniel is selling 500 acres of land in Pope Co. We think Thomas Boatwright died in Pope Co., Arkansas between 1825-30. Amey and her sons , who are now grown, come back to Texas . Amey receives a league of land from Austin in the area that became Madison County. She died in Washington Co. in 1837.

Daniel Gilliland lived for a time in Montgomery Co., Texas. Demostinie
It was here that Nancy married John Anders, 21 Jan., 1845, and Mary married Stephen Slater, 26 July, 1845.

Nancy Anders died when her baby, Virgil, was a few weeks old.
Tradition has that some one kept Virgil while he was a baby.
He is not with John and his other children on 1870 census.
Nancy Anders and her children, who died young, are all burried in Hamilton Chappel Cemetery in Milam County. This Cemetery not far out of Rockdale to the South.
